Narration Everyone was having a great time; but then, suddenly a servant ran hurriedly to the master of the feast and said:

Servant 1 We have a problem! The wine has run out! It seems a lot more guests than we expected have come and now there is not a single drop of wine left!

Master of the Feast What?! No more wine?? Oh dear, what are we to do! How can we have a wedding feast without wine! This is terrible! What are we to give all these guests who have travelled far to come here??

Narration The master of the feast was deeply troubled. While he tried to find a solution, Jesus' mother Mary learned that all the wine had run out. And so she came to find Jesus

M a r y Jesus, I hear all the wine has run out at the wedding feast. Can you help?

Narration Jesus responded to His mother Mary:

J e s u s Mother, my time has not yet come.

Narration Mary could not understand everything that Jesus said, but she believed that Jesus would help. So she told the servants to do exactly as Jesus instructed.

J e s u s Fill these stone jars with water.

Narration The servants could not understand, but they did as Jesus told them to. They filled the stone jars with water.

J e s u s Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast.

Master of the Feast This is terrible...awful! What am I to do? Where am I to find more wine for all of these guests?!

Servant Master, have some of this wine!

Narration The master of the feast's face lit up as soon as he tasted the wine which his servant had brought to him. The master of the feast did not know where this wine had come from but excited, he hurried to the bridegroom

Master of the Feast Everyone brings out the most expensive wine first and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink; but you have saved the best till now! Wow! Hahahaha

Narration That day all the guests at the wedding feast enjoyed the best wine made from water by Jesus and had a great time until the wedding feast ended.
