Narration Many days had passed since the days of Noah's ark and the flood. Noah had many descendants who all spoke one language with a common speech. As they moved eastward, they found a plain in Shinar and settled there.

Man with raised hand Oh! Mr. Kim! Have you sold a lot of pomegranates?

Woman with yellow hat Oh! Mr. Park! Not at all! Look at this heap! Hahaha
(noise from crowd)

Narration As the number of people increased the size of the village also increased. They built sturdy homes with bricks and there was plenty to eat.

Man with purple clothes Shall we try building a really big building with these bricks?

Narration As the people grew wiser, their hearts began to increasingly ignore God. Soon, they believed that they could be as great as God.

Man with raised hand Lets build ourselves a tower which will be the tallest tower in the world. No one will be able to hurt us if we have this tower and we can be as great as God.

Woman in pink Indeed, even God Himself will not be able to punish us so easily.

Narration The people grew increasingly greedy and began to build an extremely tall tower. They began to build a tower that would reach to the heavens.

People Higher, higher! Come on~~ heave-yo!! That's it! Yes, the end of the heavens is in view! Wow! Yes, come on!

Narration The people did not ask God if He would be pleased with such tower and just built it. They had grown proud and no longer feared God. With each day, the tower grew higher and higher. God saw the tower that the men were building and was not pleased. And so, God confused their language so they would not be able to understand each other.
